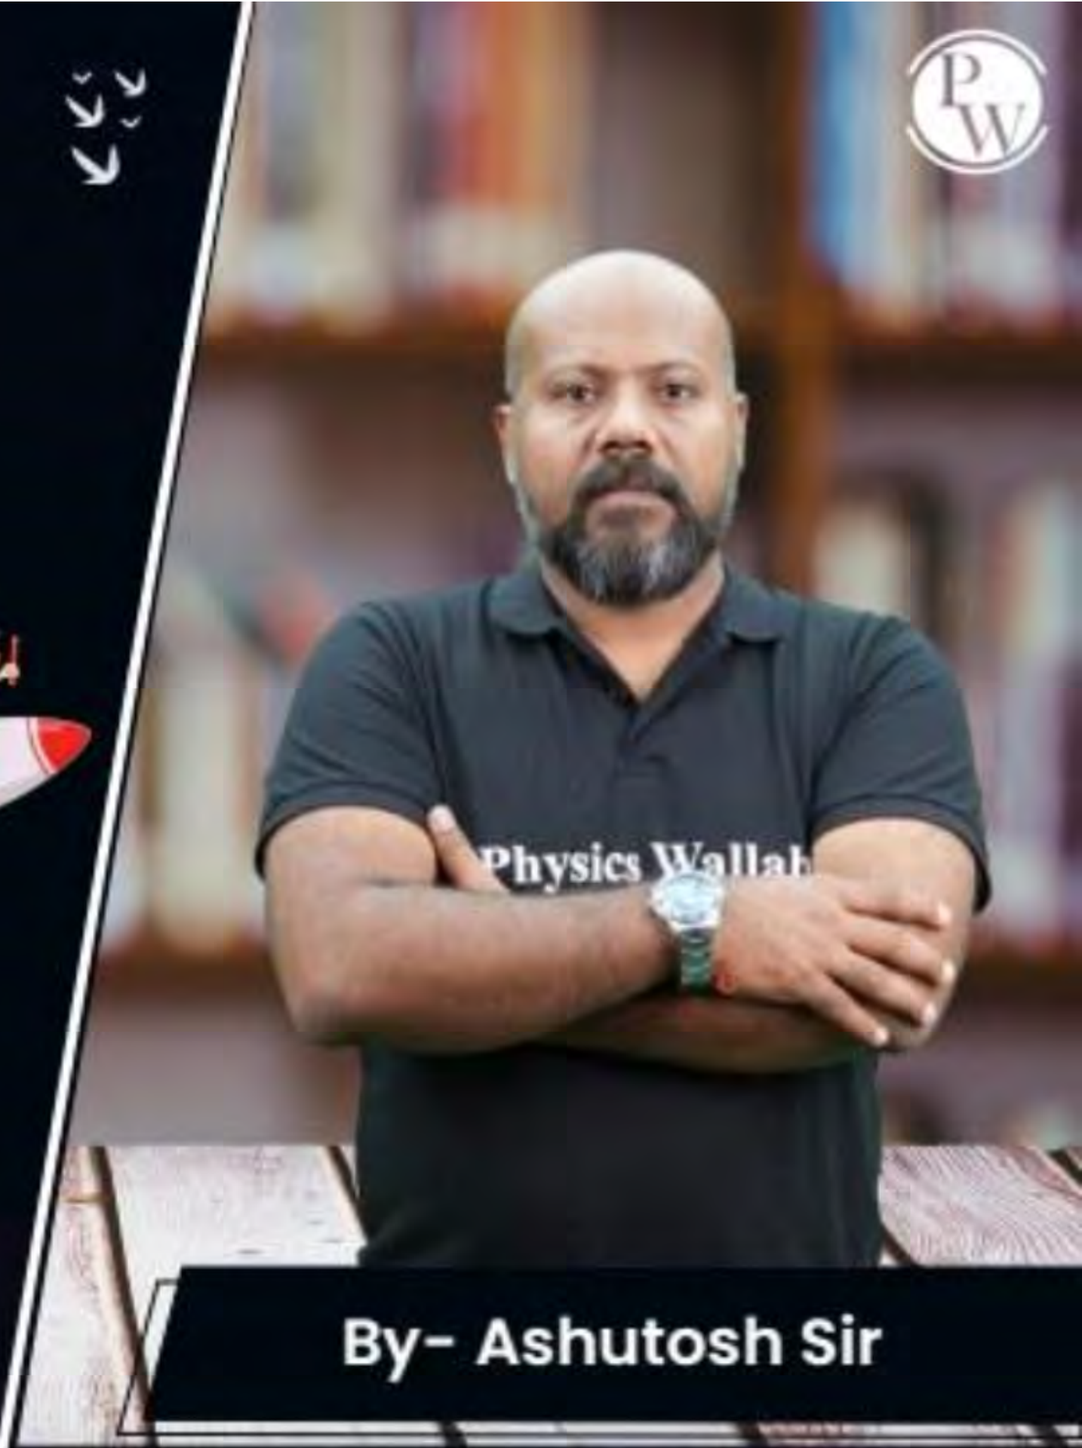
GATE
All Branches

Verbal Aptitude

Parts of Speech

Lecture No.- 02



By- Ashutosh Sir

Recap of Previous Lecture

Topic

Topic

Topic

Topic

Topic

Introduction

Parts of Speech

Noun

Topics to be Covered

- Topic
- Topic
- Topic
- Topic
- Topic

Parts of Speech

Topic : Part of speech

Sentence: A group of words which make a complete sense.

eg. The bird is flying high in the sky.

Topic : Part of speech

1. Noun:
   A person, place or thing.
2. Pronoun:
   A word used in place of noun or pronoun.
3. Adjective:
   A word which precede noun or pronoun.
   eg. Our team played a good game.
4. Verb:
   A word that expresses the subject of a sentence.
   eg. He is teaching verbal ability.

Topic : Part of speech

5. Adverb:
   A word which modifies an adjective or verb or adverb.
   eg. The horse runs very fast.
   eg. I am deeply grateful to you.
6. Preposition:
   A word which tells the relation of noun or pronoun with something.
   eg. He wrote the document with a pen.
7. Conjunction:
   Connector, It connects words, phrases or sentences.
   eg. Delhi and Mumbai are metropolitan cities.
   eg. He is not only intelligent but also industrious.

Topic : Part of speech

8. Interjection:

A word which expresses a strong or sudden feeling.

eg. Alas! He is dead.

eg. Hurrah! We won the series.

Topic : Part of speech

Conditionals:

If

If clause……..Main Clause

If + Present……Future

If + Past……..Would + verb

If + Past perfect…..Would + have + past participle

Topic : Part of speech

If he comes to the library, I will give him these books.

If she came to my house, I would give her your message.

If she had come to my house, I would have given her your message.

Topic : Part of speech

If + desire/hypothetical condition

If + were, irrespective of previous rules.

eg. If I were a bird, I would fly to Australia.

Topic : Part of speech

eg. If I will win the contest, I will buy a new house.

If I win the contest, I will buy a new house.

eg. If I would have been there, I would make a speech.

If I had been there, I would have made a speech.

or, If I were there, I would make a speech.

eg. If I would have a degree from that university, I would get a good job.

If I had a degree from that university, I would get a good job.

Topic : Part of speech

Nouns:

1. Common Noun: Same class or category. She is a good girl.
2. Proper Noun: The name of a person, place or thing.

   eg. Kalidas was a great poet
3. Collective Noun: Representing a group.

   eg. A herd of cattle is grazing in the field.
4. Abstract Noun: Not personified or objectified

   eg. Kindness is a virtue.
5. Material Noun: A metal or material.

   eg. The house is built of brick.

Topic : Part of speech

Important Rules for the usage of Nouns:

1. A proper noun becomes a common noun when it is used in the plural form or when an article is placed before it.

   There are two Hitlers in this house. → Dictatorship traits

   Kalidas is the Shakespeare of India.

Article

- Definite (The)
- Indefinite (A, An)

Topic : Part of speech

2. Collective noun takes singular verb

The group consists of five members.

(Exception: The committee have taken their seats.)

Subject

Verb

Verb must confirm in accordance with the Subject.

Noun
Pen (Singular)	Pens (Plural)

Verb
Do	Does
Give	Gives
Take	Takes
Consist	Consists
plural	Singular

Topic : Part of speech

3. Abstract noun as common noun by placing an article before it.

Sushma is a beauty.

Topic : Part of speech

4. Abstract noun as collective noun takes a plural verb.

Youth are the pillars of the nation.

Youth is ×

Topic : Part of speech

5. Material noun representing a mass of the matter, plural form is not used.

Their house is made of bricks and stones. ×

Their house is made of brick and stone. ✓

Hain ~~Hains~~

Gnain ~~Gnains~~

Topic : Part of speech

6. Some nouns are used in singular only

Advice, grain, hair, information.

(Advice-Noun

Advise-Verb)

eg. The advice of the doctor is that I should not smoke.

The doctor advised me not to smoke.

I advised you not to go out of the house in the night.

Topic : Part of speech

Summons-singular

Summonses-plural

Verb → Noun

Summon → Count → Summon

Summons → → noun

Topic : Part of speech

Some nouns are always used in plurals

Scissors, Biceps, Trousers, Earnings

His earnings

His earning

He is earning 1 lakh rupees a month.

Topic : Part of speech

7. Apparently plural but actually singular in use

News, physics, economics.

North + East + West + South

Topic : Part of speech

8. Always in plural

Cattle, police, people.

police is × police are people is × people are

Topic : Part of speech

9. When a plural noun represents the whole, verb must be in singular form.

Ten thousands rupees is a large amount.

Ten thousands rupees are a large amount.

Written english

Spoken english

GATE

Topic : Part of speech

10. Possessive noun (use of apostrophe) not used for inanimate objects.

Table's leg ✗

Leg of the table ✓✓

possessive
↓
ownership

Topic : Part of speech

11. Inanimate objects representing beauty or grace etc. they are represented as Feminine gender.

eg. Moon

12. Inanimate objects representing strength, superiorty, violence etc they are respresented as male gender.

eg. Sun, death, war.

13. Possesive case (aposthrophe) with the name of personified objects.

eg. Death's icy hands.

14. When the noun is in the plural form, the possessive case follows

eg. Girls' hostel

birds' nest

Inanimate objects (lifeless) → Apostrophe ('s)

Personification → Apostrophe ('s)

Girls' Hostel

Boys' Hostel

Topic : Part of speech

pen → pens

Men's

15. Possessive case: plural form without s

eg. Men's club, women's day

16. Many words forming a noun, pronoun; possessive case is used for last word

eg. The Prime Minister of India's visit.

17. When two or more nouns are connected (eg. and), the possessive case is used by adding to the last noun.

eg. Amar and Anil's visit was successful.

18. Compound noun: possessive case is used for the last word.

eg. Commander in chief's office

Topic : Part of speech

5. Material noun representing a mass of the matter, plural form is not used.

Their house is made of bricks and stones.

Their house is made of brick and stone.

Topic : Part of speech

6. Some nouns are used in singular only

Advice, grain, hair, information.

(Advice-Noun

Advise-Verb)

eg. The advice of the doctor is that I should not smoke.

The doctor advised me not to smoke.

Topic : Part of speech

Summons-singular

Summonses-plural

Topic : Part of speech

Some nouns are always used in plurals

Scissors, Biceps, Trousers, Earnings

Topic : Part of speech

7. Apparently plural but actually singular in use

News, physics, economics.

Topic : Part of speech

8. Always in plural

Cattle, police, people.

Topic : Part of speech

9. When a plural noun represents the whole, verb must be in singular form.

Ten thousands rupees is a large amount.

Topic : Part of speech

10. Possessive noun (use of apostrophe) not used for inanimate objects.

Table's leg

Leg of the table

Topic : Part of speech

11. Inanimate objects representing beauty or grace etc. they are represented as Feminine gender.

eg. Moon

12. Inanimate objects representing strength, superiorty, violence etc they are respresented as male gender.

eg. Sun, death, war.

13. Possesive case (aposthrophe) with the name of personified objects.

eg. Death's icy hands.

14. When the noun is in the plural form, the possessive case follows

eg. Girls' hostel

birds' nest

Topic : Part of speech

15. Possessive case: plural form without s

eg. Men's club, women's day

16. Many words forming a noun, pronoun; possessive case is used for last word

eg. The Prime Minister of India's visit.

17. When two or more nouns are connected (eg. and), the possessive case is used by adding to the last noun.

eg. Amar and Anil's visit was successful.

18. Compound noun: possessive case is used for the last word.

eg. Commander in chief's office

Topic : Part of speech

Pronoun:

1. Use of it:

   To introduce a sentence.

eg. It is not certain that president will come.

   To emphasise to the noun or pronoun.

eg. It was you who started the argument.

   For inanimate or impersonal

eg. It rains.

   To show distance

eg. It is not far to walk.

Topic : Part of speech

To indicate time

eg. It is ten o'clock now.

Topic : Part of speech

2. while confessing the fault, (expressing a negative idea), the sequence of the pronouns will be

eg. I, you and he will be punished.

3. while expressing a positive idea, the sequence of pronouns will be

eg. You, he and I will be awarded.

4. Two singular nouns joined by and and represent same person or thing then pronoun should be singular.

eg. The account officer and treasurer should be careful in his work.

Topic : Part of speech

5. Two singular nouns joined by and and preceded by each and every, then pronoun should be in the singular form.

eg. Every student and every teacher took his or her seat.

6. Singular noun and plural noun are combined by either.....or / neither.....nor, then singular noun comes first in the sentence and pronoun must be in plural.

eg. Either the manager or his subordinates failed in their duties.

Topic : Part of speech

7. Personal pronouns (yours, ours, hers etc.) are written without apostrophe.

eg. Your's sincerely
Yours sincerely

8. One is in general about people but never use pronoun as his/her, always use one's

eg. One should do his duties.
One should do one's duties.

9. Relative pronoun: it must be placed to the noun (antecedent) as near as possible.

eg. This is the manager who abused the clerk.

Topic : Part of speech

10. Relative pronoun in the objective case is generally omitted.

eg. The student (whom) you wanted to punish is absent today.

11. Use of which:

(i) for infants, objects, small animals etc

eg. This is the baby which was lost in the theatre.

(ii) for selection

eg. Which of these watches do you want to purchase?

(iii) Refer to a sentence/situation

eg. He was said to be drunk, which was not true.

Topic : Part of speech

12. Usage of that

I. For persons, lifeless things etc (whether it is singular or plural)

eg. This is the girl that failed in the exam.

This is the mobile that I bought yesterday.

The weather of Hyderabad is far better than Mumbai.

The weather of Hyderabad is far better than that of Mumbai.

Topic : Part of speech

13. Either and Neither: two persons, objects or things etc.

eg. Neither Mohan nor Sohan is intelligent.

14. Each other and One another:

Each other-for two persons, places or things.

eg. These two students love each other.

One another- more than two persons, places or things.

eg. Those four friends always agree with one another.

Topic : Part of speech

15. Anybody, everyone, everybody etc.

Must follow the masculine or feminine gender accordingly.

eg. Everyone of the boys got his admit card.

Topic : Part of speech

- Adjectives:

Usage:

Ramesh is a good player.

Ramesh is intelligent.

Topic : Part of speech

Positive Degree: No other player in the team is as good as Prakash.

Comparative Degree: Prakash is better than any other player in the team.

Superlative Degree: Prakash is the best player in the team.

Topic : Part of speech

"as……as" and "so……as"- used in positive degree

"adjective + er……than" – used in comparative degree

"the + adjective in superlative form" – used in superlative form

Topic : Part of speech

1. when selection of the two persons or things of the same kind

   the better of

eg: She is the better of the two sisters.

Topic : Part of speech

2. most of the adjectives form their comparative degree by adding “r” or “er”

   Most of the adjectives form their superlative degree by the addition of “st” or “est” eg: great……..greater……..greatest brave……braver……..bravest

Topic : Part of speech

3. some adjectives having more than two syllables

Comparative degree-------more Superlative degree---------most eg: beautiful.....more beautiful.....most beautiful interesting.....more interesting.....most interesting

Topic : Part of speech

4. when two qualities are compared in the same person or thing

Comparative degree is formed by using more instead of "r" or "er"

eg: Rekha is more wise than intelligent. (not wiser)

Topic : Part of speech

5. Any other

X -------Gold is more precious than any metal.

Gold is more precious than any other metal.

Topic : Part of speech

6. Some words can not be used in comparative and superlative forms eg: interior, exterior, ulterior, major, minor etc.

X------This is more interior than that.

This is interior to that.

Topic : Part of speech

7. Some comparative adjectives are followed by “to” not by “than”

eg: superior, senior, junior, inferior, prior, anterior, posterior, prefer etc

Topic : Part of speech

8. Some adjectives not used with comparative and superlative degree eg: empty, excellent, circular, extreme, chief, entire, complete, perfect, final, last, unique, universal, round, square, triangular, eternal.

Topic : Part of speech

9. Some adjectives can be used only in positive and superlative degree.

eg: top.....topmost
eastern.....easternmost

Topic : Part of speech

10. Preferable is not used with more.
    Preferable is followed by “to”

eg:

X------This is more preferable than that.

This is preferable to that.

Topic : Part of speech

11. Two adjectives which refer to the same noun or pronoun must be in the same degree of comparison.

eg: Gandhi ji is the noblest and wisest of all national leaders.

Topic : Part of speech

12. Some adjective when preceded by “the”, they become nouns in plural, hence plural verb is used with them.

eg: rich, poor, needy, aged, blind, dead, meek, wicked

The rich usually hate the poor.

Topic : Part of speech

13. Farther.....Further

farther----distance----significant distance

further----in addition to something.

Topic : Part of speech

14. Many, a great many, a good many

Plural noun and plural verb

eg: A great many people died in the accident.
My brother has a good many friends.

Topic : Part of speech

15. Many + a + singular noun + singular verb

Many a scientist is attending the meeting.

Topic : Part of speech

16. Few, Little, Much, many

- Few is used with plural nouns.
- Little is used with singular noncountable nouns.
- Without Articles Few & Little usually have negative meaning
- With articles Few & Little are positive in meaning.

eg: There are few books on Machines in the library.

There are a few eggs in the basket.

- Fewer & Less: Fewer is used with countable nouns and less before uncountable nouns.
- Many & Much: Many is used for countable nouns and Much is used with uncountable nouns.

Topic : Part of speech

17. Too, Very, Enough

- Very means high degree but not impossibility
- Too suggests impossibility
- Enough suggests possibility/sufficient degree.

Topic : Part of speech

18. Hardly, Scarcely, rarely, Seldom, Without, & Only

- Scarcely & Hardly are followed by "when" and not "than"
- No sooner is followed by "than"
- No sooner + had + Subject + Past participle + ...

eg: No sooner had I reached the station than the train left.

- No sooner + did + subject + present tense verb + ...

Topic : Part of speech

19. Some verbs related to sensation are followed by adjectives not by adverbs eg: feel, look, seem, appear, smell, taste and sound

X---------He feels badly.

He feels bad.

X---------The soup smells deliciously.

The soup smells delicious

2 mins Summary

Topic One

Noun

Topic Two

Topic Three

Topic Four

Topic Five

THANK - YOU