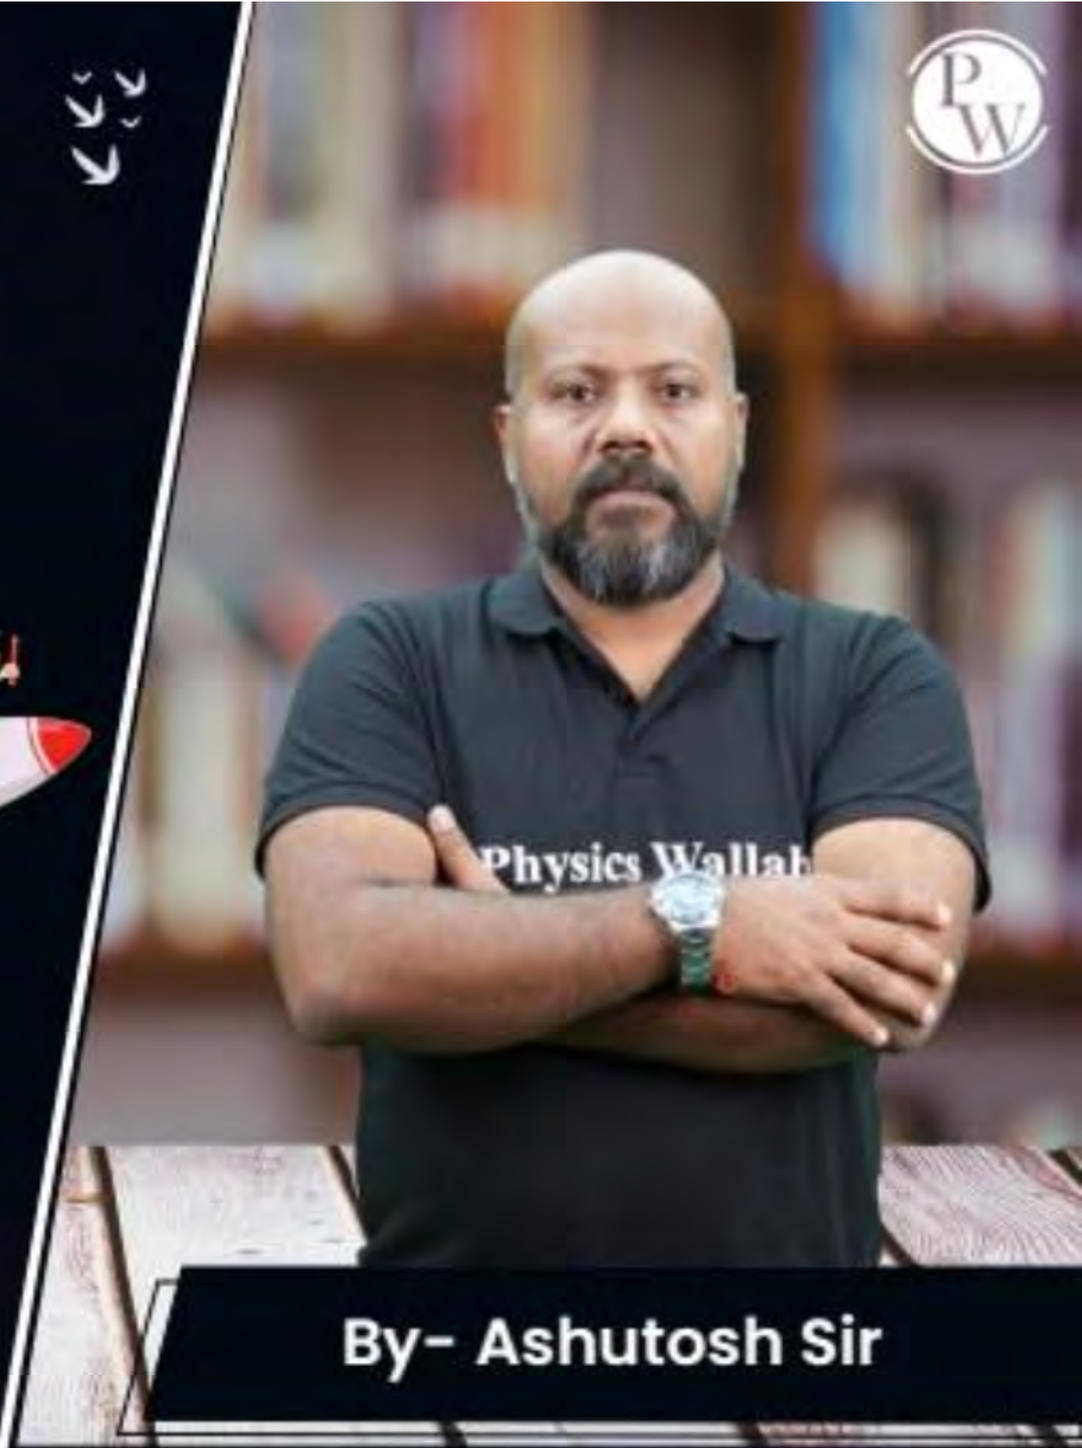
GATE
All Branches

Verbal Aptitude

Vocabulary

Lecture No.- 01



By- Ashutosh Sir

Recap of Previous Lecture

- Topic
- Topic
- Topic
- Topic
- Topic

Noun (Rules)

Topics to be Covered

- Topic
- Topic
- Topic
- Topic
- Topic

Pronoun (Rules)

↓

Parts of Speech

↓

Vocabulary - Most Frequent

Topic : Part of speech

Pronoun:

1. Use of it:

To introduce a sentence.

eg. It is not certain that president will come.

To emphasise to the noun or pronoun.

eg. It was you who started the argument.

For inanimate or impersonal

eg. It rains.

To show distance

eg. It is not far to walk.

Topic : Part of speech

To indicate time

eg. It is ten o'clock now.

ponder upon something

Topic : Part of speech

2. while confessing the fault, (expressing a negative idea), the sequence of the pronouns will be

eg. I, you and he will be punished.

3. while expressing a positive idea, the sequence of pronouns will be

eg. You, he and I will be awarded.

4. Two singular nouns joined by and and represent same person or thing then pronoun should be singular.

eg. The account officer and treasurer should be careful in his work.

play Good.

You, he/she and I will play cricket.

Topic : Part of speech

5. Two singular nouns joined by and and preceded by each and every, then pronoun should be in the singular form.

eg. Every student and every teacher took his or her seat.

6. Singular noun and plural noun are combined by either.....or / neither.....nor, then singular noun comes first in the sentence and pronoun must be in plural.

eg. Either the manager or his subordinates failed in their duties.

Either his subordinates or the manager

Topic : Part of speech

7. Personal pronouns (yours, ours, hers etc.) are written without apostrophe.

eg. Your's sincerely ✗

Yours sincerely ✓

8. One is in general about people but never use pronoun as his/her, always use one's one → one's

His/her ✗

eg. One should do his duties. ✗

One should do one's duties.

9. Relative pronoun: it must be placed to the noun (antecedent) as near as possible.

Relative Pronoun.

eg. This is the manager who abused the clerk.

Topic : Part of speech

10. Relative pronoun in the objective case is generally omitted.

eg. The student (whom) you wanted to punish is absent today.

11. Use of which:

(i) for infants, objects, small animals etc

eg. This is the baby which was lost in the theatre.

(ii) for selection who was

eg. Which of these watches do you want to purchase?

(iii) Refer to a sentence/situation

eg. He was said to be drunk, which was not true.

Adolescent (16-18 year)

Adult (18+)

Natal
NeoNatal
] Gestation

Infant (0-1 year)

Toddler (1-2 year)

Kid (2-5 year)

Child (5-12 year)

Teen (13-15 year)

19

Topic : Part of speech

12. Usage of that

I. For persons, lifeless things etc (whether it is singular or plural)

eg. This is the girl that failed in the exam.

This is the mobile that I bought yesterday.

The weather of Hyderabad is far better than Mumbai.

The weather of Hyderabad is far better than that of Mumbai.

Topic : Part of speech

13. Either and Neither: two persons, objects or things etc.

eg. Neither Mohan nor Sohan is intelligent.

14. Each other and One another:

Each other-for two persons, places or things.

eg. These two students love each other.

One another- more than two persons, places or things.

eg. Those four friends always agree with one another.

We are made for each other.

Assumption - 2 logo

Topic : Part of speech

15. Anybody, everyone, everybody etc.

Must follow the masculine or feminine gender accordingly.

eg. Everyone of the boys got his admit card.

girls her

Topic : Part of speech

- Adjectives:

Usage:

Ramesh is a good player.

Ramesh is intelligent.

Topic : Part of speech

Positive Degree: No other player in the team is as good as Prakash.

Comparative Degree: Prakash is better than any other player in the team.

Superlative Degree: Prakash is the best player in the team.

Topic : Part of speech

"as……as" and "so……as"- used in positive degree

"adjective + er……than" – used in comparative degree

"the + adjective in superlative form" – used in superlative form

Topic : Part of speech

1. when selection of the two persons or things of the same kind

   the better of

eg: She is the better of the two sisters.

Topic : Part of speech

2. most of the adjectives form their comparative degree by adding “r” or “er”

   Most of the adjectives form their superlative degree by the addition of “st” or “est”

eg: great……..greater……..greatest brave……braver……..bravest

Topic : Part of speech

3. some adjectives having more than two syllables

Comparative degree-------more Superlative degree---------most eg: beautiful.....more beautiful.....most beautiful interesting.....more interesting.....most interesting

Topic : Part of speech

4. when two qualities are compared in the same person or thing

Comparative degree is formed by using more instead of "r" or "er"

eg: Rekha is more wise than intelligent. (not wiser)

Topic : Part of speech

5. Any other

X -------Gold is more precious than any metal.

Gold is more precious than any other metal.

Topic : Part of speech

6. Some words can not be used in comparative and superlative forms eg: interior, exterior, ulterior, major, minor etc.

X------This is more interior than that.

This is interior to that.

Topic : Part of speech

7. Some comparative adjectives are followed by “to” not by “than”

eg: superior, senior, junior, inferior, prior, anterior, posterior, prefer etc

Topic : Part of speech

8. Some adjectives not used with comparative and superlative degree eg: empty, excellent, circular, extreme, chief, entire, complete, perfect, final, last, unique, universal, round, square, triangular, eternal.

Topic : Part of speech

9. Some adjectives can be used only in positive and superlative degree.

eg: top.....topmost
eastern.....easternmost

Topic : Part of speech

10. Preferable is not used with more.
    Preferable is followed by “to”

eg:

X------This is more preferable than that.

This is preferable to that.

Topic : Part of speech

11. Two adjectives which refer to the same noun or pronoun must be in the same degree of comparison.

eg: Gandhi ji is the noblest and wisest of all national leaders.

Topic : Part of speech

12. Some adjective when preceded by “the”, they become nouns in plural, hence plural verb is used with them.

eg: rich, poor, needy, aged, blind, dead, meek, wicked

The rich usually hate the poor.

Topic : Part of speech

13. Farther.....Further

farther----distance----significant distance

further----in addition to something.

Topic : Part of speech

14. Many, a great many, a good many

Plural noun and plural verb

eg: A great many people died in the accident.
My brother has a good many friends.

Topic : Part of speech

15. Many + a + singular noun + singular verb

Many a scientist is attending the meeting.

Topic : Part of speech

16. Few, Little, Much, many

- Few is used with plural nouns.
- Little is used with singular noncountable nouns.
- Without Articles Few & Little usually have negative meaning
- With articles Few & Little are positive in meaning.

eg: There are few books on Machines in the library.

There are a few eggs in the basket.

- Fewer & Less: Fewer is used with countable nouns and less before uncountable nouns.
- Many & Much: Many is used for countable nouns and Much is used with uncountable nouns.

Topic : Part of speech

17. Too, Very, Enough

- Very means high degree but not impossibility
- Too suggests impossibility
- Enough suggests possibility/sufficient degree.

Topic : Part of speech

18. Hardly, Scarcely, rarely, Seldom, Without, & Only

- Scarcely & Hardly are followed by "when" and not "than"
- No sooner is followed by "than"
- No sooner + had + Subject + Past participle + ...

eg: No sooner had I reached the station than the train left.

- No sooner + did + subject + present tense verb + ...

Topic : Part of speech

19. Some verbs related to sensation are followed by adjectives not by adverbs eg: feel, look, seem, appear, smell, taste and sound

X---------He feels badly.

He feels bad.

X---------The soup smells deliciously.

The soup smells delicious

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Exacerbate (Very difficult)

Abysmal: very bad

Egregious.

Adamant: uncompromising

Admonish: to caution or reprimand

Alacrity: cheerful willingness, eagerness

Allure: the power to entice by charm

Alluring Personality.

Abyss →

Extremely deep

Unfathomable

Abyss

Synonym
- Abysmal - bad
- Egregious - Extremely bad

Exacerbate → worsen

Admonish

↓

Reprimand

↓

Castigate

डाँटना

Scold → बच्चों को डाँटना

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Antecedent: something that comes first

Apprise: to inform

Arduous: extremely difficult, laborious

Assiduous: diligent, hard working

Avarice: greed

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Bacchanalian: lively & noisy festivities

Banal: Ordinary

Bane: poison, torment, cause of great distress or annoyance

Bastion: stronghold, fortress,

Beget: to give birth to, to create, to lead, to cause.

Belabor: to go over repeatedly

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Belabor: to go over repeatedly

Belligerent: hostile, aggressive

Benevolent: generous, kind,doing good deeds.

Benign: gentle, not harmful

Blasphemy: irreverence, profanity

Blithe: carefree, cheerful.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Bovine: cow related, cow like

eg. The woman's bovine figure made her unnoticed in the party.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Burgeon: expand, flourish

The burgeoning city population made the city borders uncertain.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Burlesque: an absurd imitation of something or someone especially in literary or dramatic way.

eg. His latest art piece is a burlesque.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Cacophony: harsh noise

eg. The cacophony of modern transport is unbearable.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Cajole: persuade someone to do something.

eg. The Manager coajoled the worker to resign.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Callow : immature.

eg. The customers was shocked by the callowness of the staff in the shop.

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Candor : candid, sincere honesty.

Capitulate: to surrender, to give up or give in Capricious: unpredictable

Castigate: to criticize severely, to chastise

Categorical: unconditional, absolute

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Censure: to condemn severly

Chagrin: humiliation, embarrassed disappointment

Charisma: seemingly magical ability to attract followers and inspire loyalty.

Charlatan: fraud, quack

Chastise: to punish, to discipline

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Chicanery: deceitfulness, trickery

Chimera: illusion

Choleric: hot-tempered

Chronic : lasting for a long time

Circumlocution : an indirect expression.

Clandestine: secret, concealed

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Condone: to ignore, tolerate

Conjecture: to guess, infer

Construe: to interpret

Contrite: admitting guilt

Coup: a brilliant victory

Topic : Vocabulary-1

- Contagion - the communication of disease from one person to another by close contact
- Countenance - a person's face or facial expression
- Cringe - have a feeling of awkwardness or embarrassment
- Cue - a signal for action

Topic : Vocabulary-1

- Dauntless showing fearlessness and determination
- Delicacy fineness or intricacy of texture or structure
- Delicate very fine in texture or structure; of intricate workmanship or quality
- Depict show or represent by a drawing, painting, or other art form

Topic : Vocabulary-1

- Desolate feeling or showing misery, unhappiness, or loneliness
- Destitute without the basic necessities of life
- Devote give all or a large part of one's time or resources to (a person, activity, or cause)
- Diabolical disgracefully bad or unpleasant, characteristic of the Devil
- Discrepancy a lack of similarity between two or more facts
- Dismantle take (a machine or structure) to pieces

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Edifice a building, especially a large, imposing one

Elegy a poem of serious reflection, typically a lament for the dead

Endeavour try hard to do or achieve something

Endure suffer patiently

Enigma a person or thing that is mysterious, puzzling, or difficult to understand

Enslave make (someone) a slave

Epitaph a phrase or form of words written in memory of a person who has died, especially as an inscription on a tombstone

Topic : Vocabulary-1

Extinction the process of a particular thing ceasing to exist

Extricate free (someone or something) from a constraint or difficulty

THANK - YOU